

Unifrax Announces Scott Horrigan as Chief Financial Officer

TONAWANDA, N.Y., - Sept. 3, 2020 - Unifrax, a leading global provider of high-performance specialty materials focused on thermal management, emission control, batteries, specialty filtration and fire protection applications and backed by Clearlake Capital Group, L.P. (together with its affiliates, "Clearlake"), today announced that Scott Horrigan has been promoted to Chief Financial Officer of Unifrax.

"Scott has been an integral part of the Unifrax leadership team for the past five years. During his tenure, he led the creation of the FP&A and Treasury capabilities we have today," said John Dandolph, CEO at Unifrax. "His leadership has been instrumental in developing common metrics, analysis tools, and the operating systems and rhythms we use to make decisions and drive shareholder value."

"Scott has played a vital role in supporting strategy development and operating plan execution by partnering with leaders throughout the company. His experience, proven leadership skills, and commitment to Unifrax's vision and core values make him a natural fit for this role," Mr. Dandolph added.

"During my time at Unifrax, I've been impressed with the innovative culture that resonates from the production floor to the research labs at Unifrax," added Mr. Horrigan. "I began my career as an environmental engineer focused on public health, and it means a lot to me to be part of a global team focused on helping customers be greener, cleaner, and safer. I'm excited to lead our finance team into the future with the same commitment to our customers and values."

Mr. Horrigan joined Unifrax as Finance Director for the Thermal Management Segment in 2015, was promoted to Senior Director of Financial Planning and Analysis in 2016, and was named Vice President of FP&A and Treasury in 2018. Prior to joining Unifrax, he held finance roles of increasing responsibility at ITT and Greatbatch Medical. Mr. Horrigan holds a B.S. in Engineering from the University of Notre Dame, an MS in Public/Environmental Health from Tulane University and an MBA from Carnegie Mellon University.
